

5 Days Uganda Gorilla Trekking Safari: Bwindi & Queen Elizabeth

5 Days | Entebbe > Queen Elizabeth > Ishasha > Bwindi > Entebbe | Price on request

Day 1: Entebbe – Queen Elizabeth

Your private guide meets you at Entebbe International Airport or your hotel in Entebbe or Kampala. A long, scenic drive west through farmland, tea and banana plantations brings you to Queen Elizabeth National Park in the late afternoon.

Overnight at a lodge in the Queen Elizabeth National Park area.

Meals: {Lunch & Dinner}

Day 2: Queen Elizabeth

An early morning game drive on the Kasenya plains, looking for lions, Uganda kob, buffalo and elephants.

In the afternoon, a boat trip on the Kazinga Channel, which links Lake George and Lake Edward — one of the best places in Uganda to see hippos, buffalo, elephants and water birds up close.

Overnight at a lodge in the Queen Elizabeth National Park area.

Meals: {Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner}

Day 3: Queen Elizabeth – Ishasha – Bwindi

Drive south through the Ishasha sector of the park, where lions are known for resting in the branches of fig trees, with a game drive on the way. Continue to the edge of Bwindi Impenetrable National Park.

Overnight at a lodge near the gorilla trekking area in Bwindi.

Meals: {Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner}

Day 4: Bwindi

After an early breakfast, report to the park headquarters for a briefing by the Uganda Wildlife Authority rangers, then set off into the forest with your trekking group. Finding a gorilla family can take from one to several hours over steep, muddy ground.

Once you reach them you spend one hour with the gorillas — watching them feed, play and rest just metres away. In the afternoon you can relax or join an optional community walk.

Overnight at a lodge near the gorilla trekking area in Bwindi.

Meals: {Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner}

Day 5: Bwindi – Entebbe

Return by road to Entebbe, arriving in the evening. A scheduled domestic flight back can be arranged on request to save the long drive.

Meals: {Breakfast & Lunch}

End of the safari.
